

Uncork Texas Wines is pleased to announce the 2022 Texas Vintners Cup competition, the only Texas wine evaluation of its kind with the goal of selecting twelve of the “Best in Texas” bottles of Texas wine.

With Texas Monthly Studio as our partner, and prominent Texas wine writer and sommelier Jessica Dupuy as one of three judges, the Texas Vintners Cup competition will determine the ultimate case of Texas wine. Twelve individual bottles of Texas wines will complete a single case, reflecting the very best our state offers.

In addition to Mrs. Dupuy, additional judges will be Master Sommeliers Jack Mason and Craig Collins. A resident of Houston, Mr. Mason is the Texas to state portfolio manager at Republic National Distributing Company (RNDC). He previously managed the beverage programs at Pappas Bros. Steakhouse as well as Marta in New York City. He has been featured in Forbes’ annual “30 Under 30” list of outstanding young professionals. Mr. Collins became enamored with wine while working at a Texas winery as an undergrad, an interest that led him to study abroad in Italy during his senior year at Texas A&M. He spent the next 20 years immersed in the beverage industry, from wineries to distribution and importing to restaurants. In 2011, Collins passed the esteemed Master Sommelier Exam. Based in Austin, Collins now represents some of the world’s most pedigreed wines as the Sales Manager at VINTUS, one of the premiere import companies in the country, and frequently participates as a speaker and judge at wine and food festivals across the country.

Each entry will be tasted in a blind format, with each bottle wrapped to hide the labels and poured by volunteers. Each wine will be evaluated based on standard tasting criteria with five possible points per category of aroma, palate, structure, balance, and finish for a possible total score of 25.

The winning Texas vintners and their wines will be profiled in a special section in Texas Monthly’s October 2022 issue, as we celebrate Texas Wine Month, highlighting the many exciting changes to our industry and to Texas wine.

Texas Monthly readers will have the opportunity to enter a sweepstakes with winners receiving prizes, including a Texas wine weekend!
